

BBDNITM Students Wins TOI's Fresh Face 2016

17 November 2016. Times of India organized a competition "Fresh Face 2016". Audition was held in 17 Different colleges/University of Lucknow. Nine boys and 10 girls were selected for the final round which was held at Phoenix United Mall, Lucknow.

The competition between the contestants were so high. The jury members of the evening were Gaurav Dwivedi, vice chairman UP Film Development Council, Jyotika Mirpuri Aroura, well known Bollywood stylist and make-up artiste and Bhoopesh Rai, director of several short films and also the key organizer of one of Lucknow's biggest theatre festival.

The first round of the event started with the participants walking the ramp and introducing themselves. In the second round, which was the talent round, the contestants mesmerized audiences and judges by dance, singing and acting. Five boys and six girls were selected for the Q&A round, who faced some tricky questions from the judges.

Finally the Apurva Mitra, student of B.Tech First year, Computer Science, Babu Banarasi Das National Institute of Technology and Management was declared as Winner of Fresh Face 2016. As well as Kavya Dixit, Student of B. tech First Year, Babu Banarasi Das National Institute of Technology and Management was declared as Second Runner up of Fresh Face 2016.

Dr. Akhilesh Das Gupta, Chairman, BBD Group congratulated students for their achievement.

Prof. A.K Mittal, Vice Chancellor, BBD University appreciated the efforts of the students and these activities are also important for their personality development along with academics.

Prof. S.M.K Rizvi, Dean Student Welfare, BBD Group congratulated and assured them for support in future.